BERTA MATUO demonstrates how light the fabric is in an asbestos jacket worn by firefighters as first graders at Belle Glade Elementary School were given a demonstration of firefighting techniques by Belle Glade Fire Department personnel. The occasion was last Friday as the local firefighters got off to an early start on Fire Prevention Week, which has been running all this week.

Clean-up week is set for Nov. 1-10 for city

BELLE GLADE - Mayor Tom Altman Tuesday proclaimed Nov. 1-10 as the Second Annual Clean-Up Week in Belle Glade. "The Veteran's Day Parade on November 11 will be able to march through a beautifully clean city," said Mrs. Frances Ball, member of the Clean-Up Committee.

The committee along with the Belle Glade Beautification Committee, is planning activities for the week. "Belle Glade has such great potential to be a beautiful city," said Layde Franke of the Beautification Committee. "Everything grows here. What a shame we don't do more."

Here's our chance to "do more." What can the average citizen do? Take advantage of ten percent discounts offered by participating merchants for paint and other "fix-up" supplies. Clean up your own property and premises. Cut weeds and flowers.

Call City Hall, 996-5536 to report an overgrown vacant lot or abandoned car. A city ordinance now permits cutting lots and towing away cars, to be charged to the owners.

If you have a lot to be cleaned up or mowed, get in touch with the Glades Habilitation, 996-3094, to hire a crew. The Center provides jobs for handicapped people in yard work and aluminum can recycling. Their efforts help keep the city neat and clean as well as providing jobs and self-respect to handicapped people.

If you are a youth leader - in church groups, Scouts, or school service clubs - enter the Spruce-Up contest. Youth groups will compete to present the project judged neatest, cleanest, and showing the most improvement. Select your own project or get one from the Beautification Committee. Call the Chamber of Commerce, 996-2745, or the public library, 996-3453, to sign your group up or to get a project assignment.

Last year Girl Scout Troop 230, under the leadership of Miss Gladys Ganzy, won a trophy for planting shrubbery around Sunset Heights Nursing Home and giving individual house plants to patients. This year your group may win the trophy.

Check with your school principal to see what program your school will have during Clean-Up Week. Most area schools will make a special effort to beautify their campuses for this week.

Be a good citizen. Help keep your city beautiful by keeping litter off streets, sidewalks, and lawns. If you notice a particularly bad eyesore, ask the owner to clean it up or notify the city. Attend Beautification Committee meetings alternate Wednesdays at 7:30 a.m. at the Holiday Inn to show what concerned citizens can do to make their city a more pleasant place to live.

Elected mayor, police chief on list of changes requested

BELLE GLADE - A group calling itself the Goldcoast Voter's League presented, through spokesman Jerry Roberts, a list of municipal goals it would like to see accomplished to the City Commission during the commission's regular meeting Monday night.

Roberts said he didn't expect to receive an immediate response on the list of 14 requests but that a response in the near future would be appreciated.

Mayor Tom Altman, after hearing the list read by Roberts, said they could be responded to by the commissioners on an individual basis or the commission could respond as a unit by drafting a resolution.

On a motion made by Commissioner William Grear, the commissioners agreed to bring up the requests during the next workshop, which hasn't yet been scheduled but will probably be held the first two weeks in November.

The list, as presented to the commissioners, is printed below verbatim:

1. Employ more blacks with the City; not with just the grounds and maintenance department, but in professional jobs at a decision making level.
2. The placement of more blacks and young folks on the city boards, this may necessitate the expansion of some boards (planning, zoning, etc.).
3. Adequate policing and maintenance of unkept lots.

acts on board, resolutions

Farm Bureau meets

BELLE GLADE - Members of the Western Palm Beach County Farm Bureau re-elected virtually the same slate of directors as held office last year and passed a total of eight resolutions for consideration by the state organization as policy during the annual meeting Saturday at the Belle Glade Marina.

The only change in the board of directors was the addition of Wayne Boynton. Re-elected to the board were Robert Stokes, Clarence Pate, J.F. Waddell, Robert Simonson, D.L. Shiver and Murray Weeks.

In the Monday night meeting, following the annual membership meeting, the directors re-elected the same slate of officers as held office last year. Resuming their seats were President Robert Stokes, Vice President Clarence Pate, Secretary Robert Simonson and Treasurer J.F. Waddell.

The general membership unanimously passed the slate of resolutions offered by Directors Simonson and Roger Hatton.

The resolutions called for: A limitation on the amount of foreign investments in the United States, referring specifically to the amount of petrodollars now being invested by the Arabian oil-rich countries.

A restriction on the financial disclosure law which would require politicians to name their major source of income, such as saying they were farmers, attorneys or accountants, but neither the minor sources nor the amount earned from the major sources.

The institution of a Sunset Law which would automatically bring to an end agencies unless they could be justified.

No Cuban trade.

The rejections of any treaty which would give up any of the rights now enjoyed by the United States concerning the Panama Canal.

Import restrictions with a consideration of both the immediate beneficial effect via greatly increased employment and capital expansion and the longer range benefit of the severity of being able to purchase and manufacture commodities such as sugar and products such as steel that this country needs and would be short of during international crises.

The maintenance of an elective cabinet in the state government.

State control of environmental regulations and controls.

The members also heard a report from State Representative Bill James on the State Constitutional Revision Commission and saw member E.W. "Bud" Weaver receive an award for his efforts while a County Commissioner to bring a weather station to Palm Beach County.

Presenting the award was Buck Christian of the National Weather Service, who said that before Weaver's efforts to bring the meteorological station to Palm Beach Airport the closest weather service was in Miami.

James told the Farm Bureau members he didn't believe there would be any tremendous changes made next year to the state's Constitution but that some changes which are necessary will be made.

"Only three of the 37 members of the revision commission," James said, "even wanted to talk about a personal income tax, for example. So that's one that won't even be considered."

He said another item built into the state Constitution which helps state residents is the requirement that the legislature balance the budget before adjourning.

"Florida will never be bankrupt like New York," he said, "so long as we have that requirement."

James said he believes in the sincerity of the majority of Florida's legislators, "and as long as you keep involved and active in electing people who share your philosophy, you'll continue to have responsible leadership and government."

SENATOR DON CHILDERS chats with Palm Beach County Sheriff Richard Wille Saturday as they wait for the festivities to begin at the annual Western Palm Beach County Farm Bureau meeting and barbecue at the Belle Glade Marina.

Budget is reviewed

SOUTH BAY - City Commissioners had their first in-depth look at the $911,401 1977-78 budget Monday night in a review with Finance Director A.R. Grigsby. The review came a week after the commissioners had approved it on Oct. 4.

Grigsby struck again and again at his central theme that the only way the budget could be balanced was by dipping into city reserve funds to the tune of $94,203.03 and that the city would have to begin controlling expenditures.

The retiring finance director, whose final date with the city still hasn't been decided, said that no matter what the commissioners do, they're going to have to begin operating the city on a business-like basis, "or we're going to go broke."

Grigsby reported the city had to use more than $30,000 to balance the general fund, almost $13,000 to balance the water fund and another $51,000 to balance the sewer fund. Expected expenditures for the three funds will run to $488,883, $259,808 and $163,248 respectively.

"We should have only one authorized signature for purchase orders," Commissioner Vernita Cox said, going on to say she thought that signature was City Clerk Virginia Walker's.

Mrs. Walker said she hadn't been signing the purchase orders and Grigsby said, agreeing with Mrs. Cox, there should be just one STEAK, BEER AND OYSTERS were the order of the day Sunday when the Palm Beach County Pharmaceutical Association had its annual outing at the Belle Glade Marina. Association member and local pharmacist Joe Hughes, (above, right) takes his steak medium rare from City Commissioner Claude Tisdall, who took care of the cooking chores along with Police Chief Charles Goodlett. The "pull pushers" relaxed for the entire afternoon with fun, eats and games at the marina.

The race for Florida Governor is heating up...and getting hotter daily.

Next Thursday, one of the top contenders, State Treasurer and Insurance Commissioner Bill Gunter, will be in Belle Glade at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet.

Bill has been getting lots of political mileage lately from his insurance stands, leading some to believe a great deal of the motivation is politics. Others believe he is sincerely interested in straightening out the mess the state's insurance programs are in while at the same time, holding down the cost of same.

It's a big task and controversial and the publicity resulting from it is immense. Which admittedly, doesn't harm Gunter's campaign. Anyway, he should be an interesting speaker and we're looking forward to hearing him.

Like I said, the race is becoming crowded. Along with Gunter, Attorney General Bob Shevin, Senator Bob Graham, Lieutenant Governor Bill Williams, drug store king Jack Eckard, insurance executive Fred Turner and savings and loan officer Raleigh Greene, Jr. all have their hopes pinned on the governor's chair.

Shevin has been making lots of points with the state's environmentalists and conservationists, which isn't something to be ignored in Florida. They carry a lot of weight, especially along the crowded coasts, where people are very concerned about the environment they have created.

Li. Gov. Jim Williams will be a force the others will have to take into hard consideration. He's got experience and is well liked in the Florida interior, which is quite a bit of pull in Tallahassee.

Williams' nature is such that he accomplishes a great deal, but doesn't blow his own horn enough about it. Consequently, he's not as well known as he perhaps should be.

Then there is Bob Graham. Graham is running an interesting campaign. It's a campaign which has been successful for candidates for governor in Arkansas and Mississippi. It's called "get out and hobnob with the working man."

Graham pledged to spend 100 days working various blue-collar jobs throughout the state and thus far, he has worked in such varied positions as Cuban sandwich maker, construction laborer, tugboat mate, stable boy, on an assembly line, in a cigar factory, and others.

He says by doing all this that he is gaining an insight into the problems of Florida's everyday workers. That's an open question and can be argued both ways as long as there are people to argue. Personally, I rather doubt multi-millionaire Bob Graham will learn "how the working man feels" by hobnobbing 100 days at various jobs.

That's something that would take a lot more effort and a whole lot fewer reporters for him to find out. How can a man go out among the regular folks trailed by a corps of press asking questions and taking pictures?

But one thing about Graham's campaign that is admirable is the fact he has uncovered untold numbers of jobs around the state that are available, waiting to be filled.

True, they don't pay much. Time, the hours are long and hard. True, he may have to "stomp" to manual labor. True, he may have to move away from where he is now living. But he can find work.

The question arises "With all this work available, why is unemployment so high?"

The answer can perhaps be found in two locations. (1) That people simply don't have the same pride and work values they once had, due in part to their lifestyles. (2) That the government can't bear heavy blame for the many programs, agencies, and give-aways that make the fellow with a little larceny in his heart foolish to attempt to find work.

I don't know if Graham has a good shot at the governor's office. I suspect he does. But if he gets it, I hope he will learn the one valuable lesson he can gain from his "working campaign."

That lesson being, let government do less and leave more up to the individual to accomplish for himself.

Too many of our politicians seem to have forgotten that.

Law is no need for nervousness

The landmark conviction recently of three Glades County Commissioners for violation of the state's Government in the Sunshine law appears to be having a far-reaching effect...even to the point of making local politicians nervous.

That's all well and good if they're nervous about knowing they've committed similar violations in the past but there's no reason to get uptight about going about normal city business in the proper manner.

The whole point of the so-called Sunshine law is that when politicians are talking about the city's business, or county, or state business, they're talking about the public's business and the public has a right to know what's being done in the public's name.

Anyone reporting news in the Glades area over the past few years could almost certainly cite any number of violations of the law but the only times we can remember anything being said was when the violations were made with the express intention of covering up something.

The law is complex and there is probably no one in the state yet who completely understands all the ramifications, which is probably why the Fort Myers court room was the scene of the first conviction of violators of the law.

UW worthwhile

It's that time of year again for people in the Glades to be solicited for contributions to United Way and once again there have been a number of people questioning what United Way is doing in the Glades.

And once again the answer can be expressed in one word...Lots.

When the United Way fund drive got underway last year, one of the requests made by local volunteers was that what was raised in the Glades would be spent in the Glades.

There were a number of the volunteers who expressed concern that too much of the money, being raised here would be spent in the coastal region but they quickly found that if there was an inequity, it went the other way. It was unlikely then and it's unlikely again this year that Glades contributions will be enough to offset the amount spent here by United Way agencies.

For those wondering where the money goes, look around. Boy Scouts, Visiting Nurses Association, Retarded Children, We Care are only a few of the activities in the Glades being supported by United Way.

And the same choice is true this year as last; we can do it ourselves in the way we want it down or we can ignore the problems and have some bureaucrats from Washington come in and do it for us...their way.

Although many people sometimes feel guilty, few express their feelings as well as Psalm 32: "When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long."

Conforming to the Sunshine Law has been a learning experience for politicians all over the state and the efforts to conform here at the local level have been encouraging.

As we said, there have been any number of violations over the years by Belle Glade and South Bay City Commissioners but they've been getting fewer and further between as the commissioners have found what they can and can't do.

The Glades County case should provide some firm guidelines on some of the things they can't do and looked at in that light, Glades County State's Attorney Joe D'Allesandro should be commended as an instructor in the democratic process.

The public has a right to know what is being done in its name and for its benefit and there is no reason that public knowledge should hamper the ability of city commissioners to perform their duties.

Family concern

We notice with interest that recent legislation that will bring household and domestic workers under the Florida Employment Compensation program beginning January 1.

Affected will be all employers who pay cash remuneration of $1,000 or more in 1977 for domestic services in a private home, local college club, or college fraternity or sorority.

The concern is that many, many families now have both husband and wife working, and they must pay a babysitter to take care of their children while they are on the job.

Even the lucky family that gets away with only $25 per week in babysitting services, however, will fall under this act.

For them as employers, they will be required to fill out forms which will include the employees names, social security numbers, total wages paid, number of weeks worked during the quarter, as well as other information.

This information will be required to be completed and mailed to Tallahassee within 30 days after "notification of liability."

The employer will not be liable for unemployment tax or for claims. These will be paid by the federal government...at least for now.

The employee, however, will be required to pay a 2.7% tax on all earnings up to the first $6,000. Employees will also be required to fill out forms for the first three quarters of 1977. That's so Unemployment Compensation officials will have "instant records" from which to work.

Surely there has been a great deal of thought put into this matter. But not enough.

The working husband and wife have likely never come up against the Unemployment Compensation program in their new roles as employers. If for some reason, they discharge their housekeeper or babysitter, and that person files for unemployment, the fun really begins.

There is more paperwork, then a hearing to determine if the employer has "just cause", then more paperwork, then a determination by the hearing officer.

And finally, the federal government will pay the unemployment claims that are justified...but you know who pays the federal government.

For the employees themselves, many do this type of work to supplement the family income. How many of them will throw up their hands and say the effort really isn't worth the trouble, or the rather low (on the modern scale) rate of compensation? If they do, untold problems could be the result. Have you tried to find a good babysitter lately?

Maybe there is hope, however. When the working wife's maid resigns, she'll have to come off the job to stay with the children. Then maybe she can file for unemployment on the basis she had to resign because the Unemployment Compensation program forced her to.

And in many cases, they'd have to agree, we think.

CRACKER CRUMBS

BY DEAN JONES

Sometimes the best thing to do is find as many mattresses as possible, line the walls of your bedroom with 'em and resolve never to leave.

That's what I should do last week.

What started out to be one of those lazy Sundays when all you have any intention of doing is loaf around the house and maybe spend part of the afternoon with some friends wound up just a tad more exciting than that...even if it wasn't quite as enjoyable.

Proved to be quite an education, though. Found out quite a few things.

Like Buicks don't fly too well. Must be an oversight on the part of General Motors but the one-eyed Maroon Machine a lot of people around Belle Glade have gotten to know over the last four years just didn't have enough oomph to keep going much more than 70 feet in the air.

Guess the builders didn't install flaps in the LaSalle model...or at least I couldn't find 'em in the best of things after I hit the road that night. And no matter how much gas I gave it, the darn thing just kept on sinking in a parabolic arc with a drainage ditch instead of a pot of gold at the end.

Like the student pilot said after he'd crashed on takeoff: "The only way I can explain it, sir, is I lost speed, altitude and ideas simultaneously." And I'll tell the world a drainage ditch can't make too sporty a landing, either.

Did find out, though, you can punch out the windshield with your face but something else I found out is it ain't worth it...even if you get a head as hard as mine.

Found out a couple of other things too, like the doctor on duty at Everglades Memorial would make a good seamer (I guess that's the male equivalent of a seamstress) and if you think the road between the Glades and the coast is long and rough, you ain't seen nothing until you've tried it flat on your back in the back of an ambulance.

Guess the most important thing I found out, though, is a guy don't know how many friends he's got until he's bunged up in an accident. It didn't take long to lose track of the number of people who called after I'd gotten home Monday afternoon and Lord only knows how many came by or were called, since then.

And that's not to mention the ones who went even further out of their way to lend a helping hand, like Jenny Huggins who played taxi most of that day and Cathy, who chauffeur'd me around Wednesday night to Belle Glade papers...and the answer is, no guys, she ain't gonna continue the job. You're gonna be stuck with me again soon as I get more wheels. One of the more unusual aspects about the whole thing, though, is that's the first time I've had supper cooked for me by the mayor or wife...not once, but twice.

And the second time Tom and Deborah Altman came and got into the second of the usually expected three things in a row when it comes to trouble...they drove up just about the time I came reeling out of the truck after the accident and trying to swipe away a cloud of smoke.

There I was less than 48 hours away from a car wreck and I had to go and have a pot of rice on the stove whilst I traipsed off to Pak-hoke.

You wouldn't believe what a fine smoke bomb a little two quart pot can make.

By the time the Fire Department got there, the living room had cleared out considerably. You could even see the bookcase just inside the door. Guess that was because I'd held my breath and gone back in several times to open the windows I could reach with my short breath.

And in the middle of all that I get a phone call from a friend who says he's coming down the country for working the day after the accident and not taking care of myself and wondering, "why aren't you in bed?"

Lady, I'd be glad to be in bed but right now, I can't find it. So much for the theory you gotta be married to be nagged.

Anyway, I'm waiting right now for whatever's gonna be third on the list...it's hanging in there the biggest sword Damocles ever saw by the thinnest thread in existence.

Which is why I'm writing this on Thursday. Figger I'd better get it done while both arms are intact.

Dr. Guzman honored for his contributions

ORLANDO, FL.—Two of Florida's top agricultural scientists were cited here today for their outstanding research accomplishments and contributions to Florida's fresh vegetable industry.

At the 94th annual membership meeting of the Florida Fruit & Vegetable Association, plaques and honorariums were given to Dr. Paul H. Everett of the Agricultural Research Center, Immokalee, Florida, and Dr. Victor L. Guzman of the Agricultural Research and Education Center, Belle Glade.

Dr. Everett is a soils chemist at the Immokalee center and Dr. Guzman is a horticulturist at the Belle Glade Center. Dr. Everett's plaque reads: "In recognition of his outstanding research accomplishments and contributions to Florida's fresh vegetable industry in the field of soil and plant nutrition and vegetable variety development."

Dr. Guzman's plaque reads: "In recognition of his outstanding accomplishments and contributions to Florida's fresh vegetable industry in development of complete production systems for vegetable crops on organic soils."

The annual awards are made to encourage and recognize research of value to Florida's agricultural industry. The recipients were honored guests of FFVA during the annual meeting.

Leon Miller, Chairman of the FFVA Research Committee, in presenting the awards, said "The Florida Fruit & Vegetable Association has honored researchers in this manner since 1956. It is our hope that the valuable work of all researchers will in this manner be recognized and that all researchers will feel that their work is truly appreciated by all members of this Association."

Dr. Everett is a native of Lake City, Florida, and completed his undergraduate and graduate soils work at the University of Florida. Dr. Everett has been a soils chemist at the University of Florida's Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences Agricultural Research Center (IFAS-RED) at Immokalee since February, 1968.

Dr. Guzman is a native of Peru and completed his undergraduate and graduate horticulture education at La Molina College of Agriculture in Lima, Peru and the University of Florida at Gainesville. He received his doctorate from Cornell University in 1945. Dr. Guzman has been with the Belle Glade Agricultural Research and Education Center since 1952.

Local bands participate in first annual Band Night

PAHOKEE — Two local bands participated in the first annual Band Night held in the Orange Bowl, Saturday night, October 8th. The two bands, Pahokee High School (O.D. Express) and the Glades Day School Band were invited to participate in the halftime show of the Miami vs. Kansas State football game.

The Pahokee High School band left Saturday morning around 10 a.m. with 62 members making the trip. The ride was not the usual long 2½ hour trip because, even though they rode on buses, activities weren't limited. The upperclassmen tried breaking the Guinness World Book's record number of people in a bus restroom by cramming 12 into the bus's restroom.

Fred Stevens, band director of the Glades Day School band, told me, "the trip over here was tiring for me but not for my 82 kids. This is a new experience for them and they're all excited."

When the bands arrived at the Orange Bowl they practiced the half-time show with 34 other bands. The University of Miami were the hosts. After practicing the half-time show, they were taken to the University of Miami for lunch and a tour of the campus. The Pahokee High School Band enjoyed bowling a few games, at the campus bowling alley, after lunch. Ollie Davis, Jr., band director of the Pahokee High School Band said, "It was good that the band was able to come, because we're out in the Glades and don't get very many chances to see and know what other bands around the state are doing. Overall it has given us more umph to get up and try harder for a better band."

The bands were pleased with themselves and felt rewarded after it was over.

Open house is set by Southern Bell

BELLE GLADE—The public is being invited to a special open house by Southern Bell Tuesday evening from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the company's two year old electronic switching system central office at 108 S.W. Ave. C.

Belle Glade general manager B. Carlton White said the company is holding the open house in order to give the residents of Belle Glade an idea of what the telephone company has invested in the local area.

"We have the most modern equipment in the world right here in Belle Glade," White said this week. "We're proud of it and we want to acquaint the public with what Southern Bell is doing."

The ESS office went into operation just before 1 a.m. Sept. 22, 1975 and replaced equipment which had been originally installed in 1935. The new system brought every type of optional service offered by the company to Belle Glade, bringing it up from what had been one of the least advanced systems in the state.

The U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare recognizes the AANA as the official accrediting agency.

Fun After Fifty Club holds Hal loween Meeting

PAHOKEE - On October 4th at 12 noon the Fun After Fifty-Five (FAFF) Club held its regular monthly meeting in the fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church. The fellowship hall was beautifully decorated in the Halloween motif. Mrs. Ruby Kemp and Mrs. Lola Carter, hostesses, wore peaked Halloween caps.

After the invocation led by the Rev. Carl Storey, the group enjoyed a delicious covered-dish dinner.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Grace Graham using Psalm 19 as a basis for her thoughts.

Mrs. Cleo Douthit introduced Mrs. Edna Maxson who shared some slides and comments on the two extended tours she and her husband enjoyed as they visited their son and family in Southern Germany. She centered her discussion on family life in a small village, especially the one in which they stayed.

A short business session was held and the meeting adjourned after prayer by Mrs. Edna Maxson.

NATIONAL BUSINESS WOMEN'S WEEK was proclaimed in Belle Glade Monday night when Mayor Tom Altman signed the proclamation and presented it to Mrs. Donna Grooms, president of the Glades Business and Professional Women's Club during the regular city commission meeting. The observance will last all next week.

Belle Glade woman named Cancer treasurer

WEST PALM BEACH - A local woman was elected treasurer and a local club honored last Tuesday night at the annual awards dinner of the Palm Beach Unit of the American Cancer Society.

The meeting, held in the Ramada Inn, was attended by over 150 volunteers and guests.

Mrs. James Chamblee of Belle Glade was elected treasurer for the unit, and the Belle Glade Woman's Club was given a special award along with the Beta Sigma Phi's for work done during the past year.

The new president is Penington R. Wimbush, M.D., of Good Samaritan Hospital; vice president is Richard I. Goldberg, M.D.; secretary is Richard B. Moore, M.D.; and the medical advisor Thomas E. Murphy, M.D.

Other special awards were given to the Soroptomists, VFW Auxiliary Post 3586, Pratt/Whitney Aircraft employees, IBM Employees of Boca Raton, Palm Beach Benefit, and the Palm Beach County Health Department.

Committee awards for outstanding service were given to Mrs. Roy Heinz, Mrs. Raenell Warren, Dr. Richard Hudson, and Mrs. Jody Daniti, R.N.

The unit was acknowledged for having passed its crusade and public education goals in the county over the past year. A total of $555,952 was raised, which will be used in supporting the Society's programs of research, education, service and rehabilitation.

Xi Iota Alpha holds meeting at Harris home

Dr. Naomi Conley gave a report on the successful ways and means project held last week at the home of Mrs. Jortensia Guerrero.

Service projects for this year were also discussed.

The interesting program for the evening was presented by Mrs. Vivian Miller on the life of Mahatma Gandhi.

Mrs. Harris served dessert and coffee to the following guests: Mrs. Rosemary Buchanan, Mrs. Mary Frances Burke, Dr. Naomi Conley, Mrs. Anna Mae Chapman, Mrs. Janis Fliehs, Mrs. Alicia Gimenez, Mrs. Mary Green, Mrs. Janice Harris, Mrs. Cynthia Humphrey, Mrs. Vivian Miller, Mrs. Echo Painter, Mrs. Eileen Roessing and Mrs. Sandy White.

Xi Iota Mu meets to decide scholarship

PAHOKEE - The Xi Alpha Mu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Thursday, Oct. 6, at the home of Georgia Moon with Eva Spooner serving as co-hostess.

Kathryn Cunningham, president, called the meeting to order. After the routine roll call, reading of the minutes and standing committee reports, Kathryn Cunningham and Ethel Johnson jointly reported on the Sorority's City Council business. There will be a Cornelia Chase Memorial Scholarship given to a Pahokee High School student next spring. A discussion took place regarding the renovating of the Prince Theater as a long range service project with the members voting to endorse the project, subject to further study. A luncheon for all three chapters will be held Saturday, Oct. 22 at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Ann Alderman.

Kay Sears and Lavonia Parker presented a program on the life of Mahatma Gandhi. Refreshments were served to 16 members.

National Lunch Week observed in Pahokee

PAHOKEE National School Lunch Week was observed in Pahokee yesterday with personal menu invitations sent out to city officials by Mrs. Mary Alice Sullivan, School Food Service Manager at Pahokee Jr. Sr. High School.

Mrs. Sullivan said a universal menu was prepared for the students and the guests at the school, a menu that was also served to the other 26,000,000 school children throughout the United States who participate in the school lunch program.

The noon meal, featuring Italian dishes, was served to City Council members, Mayor Duncan Padgett and City Clerk Betty McVay. This year's universal menu consisted of Lasagna De Vini, Coliseum broccoli salad with cream Italian dressing, sunny Italy fruit and pine, Grandma garlic bread and Mama Mia milk.

The National School Lunch Week is an annual event sponsored by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The program was designed to focus the attention to the country's opinion leaders on the important of good nutrition and nutrition education for America's children.

Elkettes attend conference

PAHOKEE - The Elkettes of Plantation Lodge 2273 were the hostesses for the 14th annual State Conference on October 8.

During the morning hour workshops were held. All present, to help and aid the Ladies Organizations. After a delightful lunch, a report was given by Mr. James Oliver, administrator of the Harry Anna Crippled Childrens Hospital. The lady Elks of Florida raised a . . . donated to the hospital over $130,000. It should be noted that the hospital is solely supported by the Order of Elks and Elkettes of Florida. The hospital is opened to any crippled children in Florida. The L.O.P.E.S. - Ladies of the Pahokee Elks were well in attendance and received a plaque for the largest percentage in attendance.

L.O.P.E.S. at 14th annual state conference. Those in attendance were: Linda Keene, president; Marjorie Laks, vice president; Ruth Miners, treasurer; others include Violet Hitchcock, Ruby Vandergrift, Ruby Tucker, Edna Pickett, Lois Erickson, Mary Jones and Cathy Miner.

Film is shown to Mu Upsilon

Mu Upsilon members got their new year off to a start with a program by the hostess, Janet Marr. Mrs. Marr chose a film depicting family life in the 18th century, to show the differences between family life then and now.

The program was preceded by a regular business meeting led by President Dorinda Shuts. During the meeting, Mrs. Marr was selected to represent Mu Upsilon in the Beta Sigma Phi International Valentine Sweetheart contest.

Those attending were: Carol Zumpf, Dorinda Shuts, Marsha Oren, Elouise Culpepper, Sharon Courson, Karen Pierson and hostess Janet Marr.

The second meeting of the month was hosted by Linda Parrish. Mrs. Parrish started the evening out with guest speaker, Dr. Thomas P. Baker, Chiropractor.

Dr. Baker demonstrated how our bodies work under different stress and relaxed situations; how foods affect our activities. It was a very informative and enjoyable program.

A short business meeting followed the program, led by President Dorinda Shuts.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by Davenne Bailey, Dorinda Shuts, Sharon Courson, Karen Pierson, Elouise Culpepper, Janet Marr, Carol Zumpf, Marsha Oren, by hostess Linda Parrish.

Mu Upsilon's first meeting of October was held at the home of Sharon Courson. Mrs. Courson gave her program on the rearing of our children.

The meeting was called to order by President Dorinda Shuts. Socials coming up were discussed at length by social chairman Karen Pierson. A devotion was given by Janet Marr. Carol Zumpf, ways and means chairman, reminded the members about their "Country Craft Fair" on Nov. 5 at Jameson Hall. It will be open from 8 a.m. until 2 p.m.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served to: Dorinda Shuts, Elouise Culpepper, Linda Parrish, Marsha Oren, Janet Marr, Carol Zumpf, Karen Pierson by the hostess, Sharon Courson.

Christian Comments

By Bill Anderson
Pastor First Baptist Church of South Bay

The other day as I was watching the evening news, I found myself becoming very depressed as I observed people taking advantage of others and seemingly just not caring. Just as I got to my lowest ebb I remember the most important thought of my life, "God has control."

I know that most Christians are concerned and combined with the love that Jesus has, that holds the foundation of the world together. We grow stronger as churches and Christians when we commit ourselves to spreading the gospel of Christ. This credit can be given to what is known as commitment.

Christians must commit themselves not only to the local church but also the world by telling people about a God who loves them. God does not send people to hell; they go there by choice. What a terrible choice for man to make.

I like what is said in Philippians 3:13-14, "No, dear brothers, I am still not all I should be but I am bringing all my energies to bear on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, I strain to reach the end of the race and receive the prize for which God is calling us up to heaven because of what Christ Jesus did for us." (The living New Testament)

"The 12 Marks of True Christian: 1. He has accepted Jesus Christ as His personal Savior and Lord. (John 1:12)

2. He loves God with all his heart and expresses his love through constant prayer, praise and thanksgiving. (Deuteronomy 6:5-7; Philippians 4:6-7)

3. He has a deep and abiding faith in the truth of God's Word and reads it regularly to strengthen his faith. (Romans 10:17; Matthew 4:4)

4. He follows Christ's commandment, "Love one another." He is quick to forgive others their trespasses against Him. (John 13:34; Romans 12:20-21)

5. He constantly seeks the guidance of the Holy Spirit as to God's commandments as to thoughts, words, and deeds. (John 16:13; Matthew 7:21)

6. He contributes of His income, as the Lord directs, to Christian projects; He is an active faithful member of his church. (2 Corinthians 9:6-7; John 12:26)

7. He faithfully seeks to be more Christlike: He is sincere, just, honest, and dependable in his relations with others in home and community life. (Matthew 5:16; Ephesians 4:15)

8. He knows that he is accountable to God for all his possession, including his time, talents, and property and does his best to be a good trustee. (Romans 14:12; Psalm 24:1)

9. He is a humble person and gives God the credit and glory for his accomplishments. (Micah 6:8; Proverbs 3:5-6)

10. He has a deep appreciation of what Christ did for him on the

Joss and readily witnesses for his Lord to others. (Hebrews 13:20, 21; Romans 10:9, 10)

11. He is cheerful, patient and calm, and trusts confidently in God to provide the means to overcome temptations. (Galatians 5:22, 23; 1 Corinthians 10:13)

12. He does his part, as the Lord directs, in carrying the gospel message to all peoples of the world. (Matthew 28:18, 20; Luke 24:47, 48)

YOU CAN RIPEN CANE FASTER BY APPLYING POLARIS® RIGHT NOW.

Poor natural ripening conditions are the biggest obstacles a grower faces at harvest time. High, constant temperatures, excess moisture, excess fertilizer intake—these and other conditions tend to sustain growth and delay ripening.

Polaris® plant growth regulator by Monsanto helps overcome these poor ripening conditions by artificially shifting the cane out of the growth phase and into a ripening phase. In this way, Polaris can "induce" the cane into ripening earlier than it would under these natural conditions.

Not only will Polaris enable a cane grower to better regulate harvests, but it will also help him realize more sucrose from his cane. Many growers are reporting sucrose improvements with Polaris ranging from 6% to 14% over untreated checks.

This season, let Polaris help you open your mill sooner and get more sucrose. See your agricultural chemical distributor, local county extension agent, or call N. F. Eason at (813) 481-1337 for more information about Polaris plant growth regulator by Monsanto.

Always read and carefully follow the label instructions for Polaris. Polaris® is a registered trademark of the Monsanto Company, St. Louis, Mo. ©Monsanto Company, 1977. PF18/77

Scouting needs you

Scouting needs the United Way. It also needs gifts and donations from individual members in order to continue to serve the youth of the nation.

This was told to the Belle Glade Rotary Club members Tuesday at their regular luncheon by Scout executive Tommy Fletcher.

Fletcher said 6,000,000 boys and girls are now involved in Scouting and a show of hands from Rotarians found many of the club members having belonged to Scouting Programs.

He noted the goal of Palm

Beach County's community chest this year is over $900,000 which will be split between 33 agencies. Fletcher said he was "disturbed" that media commercials and advertisements for the United Way are for "charitable organizations." He said the Scouting program isn't for unwed mothers or retarded adults. "It's for helping young people grow."

He said he had worked as a United Way official in Georgia and for each $10 contributed, Scouting received 9 cents. "Scouting is growing far faster than the United Way can possibly grow," he said.

"People are waiting to be asked to help Scouting," he said, and as an illustration, he gave a slide presentation made of a group of five Martin County Boy Scouts who took a trip to the Bahamas this past summer, "courtesy of a banking official."

Next year, he said, three boats will take Scouts on a similar trip. In other Rotary business, two new members were inducted into the club by Fred Simmons. The new members are James Kilpatrick and Rev. Buck Blair.

The club also sought interest in an outing and announced a contribution of $500 to the United Way.

Reserve officer group is forming here

BELLE GLADE—The Reserve Officers Association is currently organizing a Glades chapter covering Belle Glade, Pahokee and South Bay according to Project Officer Major Joseph M. Hughes, USAFR.

Hughes said membership is open to any past or present Commissioner or Warrant Officer in any of the uniformed services of the United States.

The ROA is committed to maintaining a strong military force. The charter for the Glades chapter will allow officers from this area to add their voices and influence to the goals of the ROA.

Any officer interested in establishing a Glades chapter should contact Maj. Hughes at 996-0201 or stop by Hughes Pharmacy to be included on the initial contact roster.

A minimum of ten members is necessary to open a chapter. The date for the organizational meeting will be set as soon as a roster is ready.

Pancake brunch is Oct. 23

BELLE GLADE - The Lions Club will hold its annual pancake brunch at the Belle Glade Municipal Civic Center from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 23 for the benefit of the Junior Football League.

Donations, according to Dr. Tom Zitter, the club secretary, will be $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children.

The menu for the day will include pancakes and syrup, sausage, milk and coffee, according to Lion Roy Poling. He said he expected approximately 25-30 Lions to be working on the project.

Permits denied

BELLE GLADE—The Belle Glade City Commission Monday night denied permits for two non conforming mobile home permits, but indicated to the owners of the property on which the mobile homes were to be placed that the city would assist in having three lots declared a trailer park.

The permits were requested by Mary Lee Russell and Odessa Miller. Both were to be placed on a lot at 224 SW 8th St. Building Inspector Kenneth Retterer told the board that the lot is 85x50 and the two mobile homes were 12x60 and 12x50.

Retterer said the three lots that now contain seven mobile homes are "very well kept and clean."

City Commissioner William Grear said the area is "rather congested" and Mayor Tommy Altman said the density problem should be studied. Grear noted the SR 715 park will be completed around the first of the year and moved to deny the permits based on the facts there were problems with density and that the SR 715 park was soon to be available. The motion was seconded by Kenneth Harris and approved with Ralph Kirk voting against it.

Altman told the women the city's staff would work with them to have the lots declared a trailer park, which is controlled by the state. It will be on the agenda at the next workshop meeting.

Profile In Business

Ray Sullivan, Jr., is the owner-manager of Wilson's Superette in South Bay. Wilson's carries a full line of groceries and meats.

Sullivan bought Wilson's in March after managing it for his father for the past three years.

The Sullivan name has been known for meat cutting for the past 30 years. Both Ray's grandfather, John (Butch) Sullivan, and his father, Ray Sullivan, Sr., were butchers.

Sullivan is a third generation meat cutter. He has worked with meats all his life. He feels that his store is a specialty shop dealing in the highest quality of meats.

Wilson's offers hind quarters and other freezer cuts. They also specialize in custom cut steaks of the highest quality. All their meat is cut to order the old fashioned way.

When asked how the customer knows he is getting quality meats, Sullivan replied that he sells the best quality meats available. All is either U.S. Choice of Prime Nebraska beef.

He also said that he orders the beef and inspects it on the truck himself. If the meat doesn't meet his standards, it doesn't come in his door.

Customers also can inspect his cooler where the sides of beef hang. The quality and grade are stamped on them for all to see.

Sullivan feels that now the 4-lane is open between Belle Glade and South Bay, his business should improve. It is only a five minutes drive from downtown Belle Glade to his store.

Sullivan is a native of the Glades, having been reared in South Bay. He graduated from Belle Glade High School where he was a football star.

He then attended Mercer University in Macon, Georgia.

Sullivan and his wife, Dell have two children, Wendy, 10, and Ray, III (Bubba), 7. Sullivan's hobbies include hunting and fishing. He and his family belong to the First Baptist Church of South Bay, and Ray is a member of the Clewiston Elks Club.

It is easy to understand Sullivan's success. He has the natural gift of conversation. When entering Wilson's the customer is always greeted with a smile, a joke, or some good conversation.

As Ray says, he will do his best to continue serving people in a friendly way with the highest quality products. At Wilson's he says, they will never sacrifice quality for price; however, the customer will find quality costs no more.

When asked about the Glades area and the economy, Sullivan said that despite economic suffering by the country, the Glades area has always managed to continue economic growth. Even with the seasonal nature, the economy is still good. This is proven by the fact that Hendry County and Palm Beach County are numbers 1 and 2 respectively in per capita income in Florida.

Wilson's is open from 6 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. every day but Sunday. Ray hopes to be there for years to come to serve his customers.

Appraisal board is appointed

BELLE GLADE—The Belle Glade City Commission Monday night voted for the first time to appoint an appraisal board in a case involving buildings deemed "unsafe."

The three buildings in question, owned by Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Burgess, are located on Sixth Street. Building Inspector Ken Reitterer told the commission he had renewed a building permit for Burgess so the buildings could be fixed, but nothing had been done.

Burgess, who was at the meeting, told the commission he had been harassed about the buildings and said he felt the buildings were structural sound. He said he had cleaned up the yards, which a letter he had received from the building inspector had referred to, but said he questioned the "dangerous" stipulations made about the structures.

Reitterer said the buildings are dangerous, having no windows or doors, antiquated plumbing, and said they were assessed on the tax rolls at $500 each. He said under the city ordinance, half the assessment value could be put into repairs.

Reitterer said building permits had been issued two years ago, but nothing had been done.

Burgess said the buildings had been fixed up, saying windows were framed, doors put in, one of the buildings paneled, and electrical systems improved. But the buildings, sitting empty, were vandalized before they could be sold, he said.

City Commissioner William Grear told the board the three houses in question were moved to their present location from SR 715 six years ago. He said they were dangerous, with the floors and roof falling in. Grear said he receives complaints about their condition all the time.

Burgess said he spent $3,500 on the first two buildings four years ago, but nothing had been done to the third. He said attempts to sell them had failed.

Commissioner Ralph Kirk noted that two or three years ago, the buildings "looked pretty good."

Burgess said his idea now is to make them into rental units, but that's the last thing I wanted to do.

Grear told the board the commission has had problems with dangerous buildings before and the only way to improve the city was to abide by the building inspector's recommendation.

Reitterer said his recommendation to the commission would be to order their demolition.

Grear made the motion to demolish them, seconded by Kenneth Harris, but a legal snag soon developed.

Under the city ordinance, said Attorney John Baker, the city must first appoint a five-member appraisal board to determine the true market value. He said 50 percent of the appraisal cost could be spent on repairs.

After a great deal of discussion, the motion was withdrawn and a new motion to appoint the appraisal board made. Appointed to the board were Simon Mosley, Wallis Lutz and Roe Steel, along with City Manager Robert Sanders and the building inspector.

The board is to make its findings known by the next meeting, at which time the city could either order the buildings repaired sufficiently to meet the building code or be torn down.

If the buildings aren't torn down if so ordered within the time frame the commission decides, the next move would be petition the circuit court to allow the city to tear them down and place a lien on the property for the work involved.

Fishing

By Nan Corbin

BELLE GLADE—Plastic worms continue to bring in the majority of bags taken in the Belle Glade area of Lake Okeechobee, with green and black as the most popular colors.

On Saturday, Mrs. Lynette Weidner of Green Acres used a black plastic worm to take a 7½ pounder with six more in the two to five pound range.

Jim Ricketts and Al Hecht of Coral Springs used a green Hummer Hawk worms on Saturday to take 20 bass up to 7½ pounds. Stewart Stein of Belle Glade used live bait on Sunday afternoon to take four bass up to 6½ pounds while his friends, Hap Battle and Benton Tyson, tried their luck at speck fishing and brought in an ice chest full.

Fred Lauderdale, Fisherman, Van Short, went out early Monday morning and came in with 42 specks on Crappie Killers.

Recreation office for Belle Glade

BELLE GLADE—The city has a new recreation director and coordinator's office where the city building inspector used to be housed according to City Manager Robert Sanders.

Sanders said Recreation Director Johnny Rutledge and newly hired Recreation Coordinator Frank Mayfield will make their office in the small building in front of the city hall annex at 110 S.W. Ave. E.

Sanders said another change connected with the Recreation Department is that Rutledge, Mayfield or their secretary, Kim Tucker, will now be in charge of renting the city's two civic centers.

Meanwhile, Chief Building Inspector Kenneth Retterer, City Planner John R. Gubisch III and Building Inspector Mel Fonnebeck share an office with Renee Lee in quarters which used to house the city's sign shop.

The telephone number in that office is 996-4478. Another change made with that move was that all city licenses will be issued from that office.

Local men directors of FFVA

BELLE GLADE—W.H. Buss and George Wedgworth were chosen last week as directors of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association and Ray R. Roth, another Belle Glade grower, was chosen an alternate director of the statewide farmers organization.

Also chosen to the board of directors from the Glades area were Billy Rogers of South Bay, Roy Vandegriff Jr. of Canal Point and James W. Beardsley of Clewiston.

A total of 32 growers from around the state serve on the board of directors.

Glades Day celebrates homecoming this week

BELLE GLADE—Miss Denise Hooker, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Hooker, will be crowned in halftime ceremonies Friday night to culminate a week of homecoming celebrations at Glades Day School.

Escorted by members of the football team, she and her court will ride on floats around the field at 7:30 p.m. The floats are now being constructed in preparation for the event.

Miss Hooker was elected homecoming queen by the football team. Her court will consist of first runner-up Sherri Niesen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Vertommen, and second runner-up Donia Adams, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Don Adams. This week, the celebration began in earnest on Wednesday, which was declared "50's Day" and students dressed in attire of that period.

Thursday (today) is Country Dress Day and students will be dressed "Lil Abner" fashion.

Friday, one of the highlights of the week will take place. At the pep rally at 2:35, there will be a Boy's Beauty Contest with the guys dolling up. A boy from grades nine through 12 has been elected from each grade and will participate in the event.

The game itself will begin after preliminary events at 8:00 p.m. and as head coach Byron Walker said, "it's the key game of the season."

Gold Coast Christian, whose record is 4-1, undefeated in conference play, will attempt to spoil the Gators' homecoming. Glades Day is also undefeated in conference action.

Miss Hooker is a senior at Glades Day whose hobbies include snow skiing, tennis, and other activities. She hopes to attend either Furman or Auburn to major in advertising or marketing next year. In school, she is active on the tennis team, in the band, as a cheerleader, and in the Beta Club.

Two touchdowns called back

Gators lose to LaBelle 7-0

Two Glades Day touchdowns were called back on penalties, but the LaBelle Cowboys put together one sustained drive that won the game for them 7-0 Friday night.

It was LaBelle's second victory of the season and dropped the Gators to 3-2. "It was a big letdown for us," said Glades Day head coach Byron

Walker. "We had the better team, I can assure you of that."

In the first quarter, the Gators easily moved the ball on the LaBelle defense, winding up on the one. Quarterback Tommy Duda carried it over for what looked like an easy touchdown, but the play was nullified and the ball moved back five yards, where LaBelle got it on downs.

The second quarter was a defensive battle played mainly in the center of the field, but at the half, LaBelle found themselves on (Continued on Page 9)

GLADES DAY'S WINSTON BYRD is downed after a significant gain Friday night in the game between the Gators and the LaBelle Cowboys. Although the local team was able to put together many offensive drives, penalties halted their chances of scoring and LaBelle won on a 19-yard pass late in the fourth quarter, 7-0. This Friday, the Gators will take on Gold Coast Christian in the "key game" of the season. Friday will also mark the annual homecoming ceremonies. Staff Photo

Pahokee Blue Devils bow to North Shore 14-0

PAHOKEE—In a game scattered with fumbles and interceptions, the Pahokee Blue Devils were unable to score against the North Shore Mustangs on fair field, losing 14-0 and a loss of Devil Ronnie Osborne due to an injury in the first quarter set the Devils on shaky ground.

Osborne, playing quarterback in Pahokee's previous games, was switched to running back in efforts to gain outside speed, with Nathaniel Hannah substituting as quarterback.

The fumbling began at the outset as Pahokee dropped the ball on the kickoff, but made up for it by recovering a fumble at the three yard line. However, North Shore's defense held the Blue Devils for no score.

North Shore's first successful scoring effort came 3:38 left to play in the first quarter, with a 46 yard drive for the touchdown. With a penalty on the extra point attempt, North Shore began their lead 6-0.

Pahokee again got loose fingers with a fumble at their own 38 yard line, North Shore recovering. The game seemed to pick up for Pahokee when Frank Walker intercepted a North Shore pass. However, it was only a few plays later when Osborne was tackled during an outside run, putting him out of the game with an injured knee.

The next turnover came when North Shore's Evans snatched a Blue Devil pass intended for Vincent Bush. Pahokee's Joseph Brown was next in line for an interception, but the Devils held by the North Shore defense, were forced to punt. With no scoring in the first half, Pahokee trailed 6-0.

The Blue Devils displayed a strong defensive effort in the third quarter, holding the Mustangs just short of the goal line. Though the Devils stood firm, a "stone wall," as described by announcer Bo Pugh, North Shore's Jackson slipped through for half a yard for the Mustangs' second touchdown. A two point conversion pass gave the Mustangs two more points and a 14-0 lead.

Pahokee quarterback Nathaniel Hannah was sacked late in the fourth quarter during a scrambling effort to evade the Mustang defense, which put him out of the game.

Replacing Hannah was punter Vincent Bush. In his first bout as quarterback this season, Bush's first pass fell incomplete but the (Continued on Page 2)

Week of celebrations underway for Raiders

By Benita Harrison

BELLE GLADE—A week of activities at Glades Central High School will be capped Friday with the annual homecoming parade and a football game against Miami Pace in Raider Stadium.

Homecoming Day events Friday will begin at 2 p.m. with a pep rally at the school with class skits presented for judging. The Homecoming Parade will begin lining up at 3:30 p.m. and will begin at 4 from the traditional starting place next to the football field. All units must be in place at 3:45 p.m.

There will be a pre-game show at the football stadium which begins at 7 p.m. and the kickoff will be at 8. A dance in the gymnasium will follow the game.

The Glades Central Court introduced the candidates who will ride the floats and represent their classes as follows: Freshman, Sharon Butts, Gwendolyn Lovely and Paula Anderson; Sophomores, Mary Hanford, Awilda Rosario and Mary Moore; Juniors, Carolyn Johnson, Robin Wilkerson and Linda Anderson; and seniors, Sandra Bolden, Julia Ramos and Sheila Byrd.

Homecoming week events began Monday when students wore the Maroon and Gold school colors to school to show school spirit.

On Tuesday, the students had their dress-up day, dressing up in nice clothes all day and the coronation of the queen was held that night at the high-school gym.

Class Color Day was held Wednesday, with freshmen wearing black and yellow, sophomores wearing green and gold, juniors wearing blue and gold and seniors wearing red and black.

Today is dress-down day. Students will wear their tramp-style clothes but must remember to stay within the school dress code.

Miss Sheila Byrd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Byrd, Sr. was crowned Miss Glades Central High School by last year's winner Miss Janet Diane Lewis.

Miss Julia Ramos, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julio Ramos, was named the first runner-up and Miss Sandra Boldin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee Boldin, was named the second runner-up.

James Allen, Jr., coordinated the event. Mrs. Betty Morris was the co-sponsor.

Miss Adams is also 17 and a senior who enjoys softball and swimming. She plans to attend Florida State University to major in business or law. In school, she is active on the girl's softball team, as a cheerleader, and a member of the Beta Club.

beginning when halfback Ronnie Osborne was injured. The whole team was let down by the injury. But of course, this was no excuse for losing the game.

North Shore didn't play that strong of a game. The loss was due mainly to Pahokee playing poorly. The coaches tried putting the offensive and defensive teams back together, but failed.

We sincerely hope that the next five game will be played as well as those in the past.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Coach Antoine Russell has chosen Frank Walker, 5'11", 180 pound junior as the player of the week for the Pahokee - North Shore game. Russell said Walker was in on 21 tackles and grabbed one interception.

PAHOKEE - Leonard "Papa Jack" Jones, led the junior varsity Blue Devils to a 20-0 shutout of the Clewiston Tigers Thursday night on Pahokee's Lair Field, even though the Devils had three touchdowns called back due to penalties.

Jones started off the action immediately with an 80 yard punt return which was called back on a clipping penalty. However, after the football changed hands several times, the Devils scored a legitimate touchdown when Jones snatched a pass, running 20 yards and across the goal line. The two point conversion run by Jones failed, putting the Devils ahead 6-0.

The second devil touchdown, which was called back, came in the second quarter with 56 seconds left.

to play in the first half. Barat Banks' pass to Carl Addey was negated due to another clipping penalty.

As the second half got underway, Jones again headed for the goal line from the 27 with five minutes left in the third quarter. Earl Williams added the two point conversion with a reverse play, giving the Devils 14 points.

Capping off the touchdown recalls, Pahokee's Williams ran 30 yards, only to have his team charged with encroachment.

Clewiston livend up with a pass interception at their own 30 yard line, but Pahokee followed too quickly with Carl Addey's interception at the 43.

The J.V. Devils scored their final touchdown with 6:22 left on the clock when "Papa Jack" took off on a reverse play, gaining 40 yards. A pass from Banks to Addey was overthrown, the two

Blue Devil JV burns Clewiston Tigers 20-0

A PAHOKEE MAN takes off with a pass interception in the Pahokee High Jr. Varsity football shutout of the Clewiston Tigers, 20-0 Thursday night. The Blue Devils displayed quickness and maneuverability in their domination of the ball game.

also a 17-year-old senior who enjoys snow skiing, basketball, and other activities and hopes to attend the University of Colorado. She wants to major in electrical engineering. In school, she is active in the Pep Club, Beta Club, is Miss Senior, and a member of the Student Council.

Miss Adams is also 17 and a senior who enjoys softball and swimming. She plans to attend Florida State University to major in business or law. In school, she is active on the girls' softball team, as a cheerleader, and a member of the Beta Club.

next one connected with Ned Baldwin. However, with a 15 yard holding penalty against Pahokee, the Devils slowed down, punting back to North Shore with two minutes left to play in the game. Pahokee recovered another fumble at their own 46 yard line with one minute left on the clock, but the successive passing yardage was not enough to beat the clock.

When time ran out, the score stood at 14-0. Pahokee losing its third game of the season, all three losses going to Class 3A schools.

COACH'S CORNER

by Head Football Coach

Antoine Russell

From a coaching point of view, Friday night's game was let down, beginning when halfback Ronnie Osborne was injured. The whole team was let down by the injury. But, of course, this was no excuse for losing the game.

North Shore didn't play that strong of a game. The loss was due mainly to Pahokee playing poorly. The coaches tried putting the offensive and defensive teams back together, but failed.

We sincerely hope that the next five game will be played as well as those in the past.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Coach Antoine Russell has chosen Frank Walker, 5'11", 180 pound junior as the player of the week for the Pahokee - North Shore game. Russell said Walker was in on 21 tackles and grabbed one interception.

PAHOKEE - Leonard "Papa Jack" Jones, led the junior varsity Blue Devils to a 20-0 shutout of the Clewiston Tigers Thursday night on Pahokee's Fair Field, even though the Devils had three touchdowns called back due to penalties.

Jones started off the action immediately with an 80 yard return which was called back on a clipping penalty. However, after the football changed hands several times, the Devils scored a legitimate touchdown when Jones snatched a pass, running 20 yards and across the goal line. The two point conversion run by Jones failed, putting the Devils ahead 6-0.

The second devil touchdown which was called back, came in the second quarter with 56 seconds left to play in the first half. Barat Banks pass to Carl Addey was negated due to another clipping penalty.

As the second half got underway, Jones again headed for the goal line from the 27 with five minutes left in the third quarter. Earl Williams added the two point conversion with a reverse play, giving the Devils 14 points.

Capping off the touchdown recalls, Pahokee's Williams ran 30 yards, only to have his team charged with encroachment.

Clewiston lived up with a pass interception at their own 30 yard line, but Pahokee followed too quickly with Carl Addey's interception at the 43.

The J.V. Devils scored their final touchdown with 8:22 left on the clock when "Papa Jack" took off on a reverse play, gaining 40 yards. A pass from Banks to Addey was overthrown, the two point conversion failing. Yet the Blue Devils still triumphed with a 20-0 win over Clewiston.

Radio football set

Freedom

In Our Hands

In America, each of us holds freedom always in our hands. We have done so since our founding. We do so today. We are determined to pass freedom along to future generations.

It is important to remember that a free press and a free society are inseparable. A free press is a free people's first bulwark against tyranny. A free press protects the personal freedoms we all cherish. Without the light of free and open public communication, government can move unhindered along paths to increased abridgements of personal freedoms.

In America, we hold in our hands not only our own freedom, but in large measure that of the whole free world as well. Freedom loving people everywhere strive to achieve the unique breadth of freedom we enjoy in America. Yet, barely 35% of the world's population lives today in free societies with access to a free flow of information.

Freedom cannot be achieved or sustained without free communications. Conversely, a strong public desire for freedom in a single country could not long survive as an island in a world of totalitarianism. Although all governments talk of freedom, most would use their powers if they could to strengthen themselves—often in the name of defending the people. Such actions preempt the freedom of the people.

National Newspaper Week
Oct. 9-15

Today, concepts of freedom are under attack, and the free press is denied access to information in many countries. Today, the leaders in many countries are choosing between these differing definitions of "freedom."

In America, we enjoy press freedom. The world issue seems remote. It is not. America's is the leading light of freedom in the world. In America, we hold freedom in our hands—and, not only our own.

Winners in the 11-13 age group in the Pahokee Punt, Pass, and Kick

Punt, Pass, and Kick events held

PAHOKEE - From early morning until after noon, boys from age eight to 13 were practicing and competing in the annual punt, pass and kick events held at the Pahokee High School athletic field Saturday.

First place winners in each age group will go on to Hialeah where they will compete with other first place winners.

Following participation in three different competitions, the final winner will continue on to the Super Bowl in New Orleans where the Punt, Pass and Kick champion will be chosen among others from throughout the entire United States.

In Pahokee's events, first, second and third place winners were announced and awarded trophies. They are:

Eight year olds, first place, Anthony Williams; second place, Corey Jones, and third place, Gregory Hilton.

Nine year olds: first place, Bernard Pate; second place, Joseph Everett and third place, Bernard Young.

Ten years old: First place, Rodney Powell; second place, Eric Snyder and third place, Eric Snyder.

Eleven year olds: first place, Jerome Powell; second place, Berry Jackson and third place, Carl Worthen.

Twelve year olds: first place, Bobby Chambers; second place, Elvin Laws and third place, Derry Brown.

Thirteen year olds: first place, Boris Banks; second place, Wilbur Ramos and third place Terry Jones.

Baby Gators fall to LaBelle JVs

The LaBelle Junior Varsity football team proved a tough nut for the Pahokee team to crack last Thursday. Pahokee squatted on the first two possessions and winning the game 28-0.

After the kickoff, the Cowboys connected on a 60-yard pass and converted, then on their next possession, a 50-yard reverse was good for another touchdown. The conversion was also good and LaBelle was suddenly ahead 16-0.

Minutes later, the Gators fumbled on their own 45 and a Cowboys scooped it up and went all the way. The conversion attempt failed and LaBelle was ahead 22-0.

The third quarter remained static but in the fourth, LaBelle drove 96 yards for the last touchdown of the game. Again, the conversion try was no good.

Glades Day threatened three times during the game, twice inside the 15, but lost the ball on downs. The closest they got was a first and goal at the seven, but wound up turning the ball over on the four.

Coach Schmidt said the offense looked much better, moving the ball 130 yards on the ground and 60 in the air. Donny Courson was responsible for 60 of those yards and Nacho, Bueno picked up another 40.

On defense, Courson made nine tackles and assisted in five more and Danny Copeland connected on five tackles with six assists.

Glades Day, now 0-2 for the season, plays its next game Monday night against Glades Day.

Home fans are urged to come out and support the Baby Gators against Ft. Lauderdale Christian.

Last chance for permits for management areas

TALLAHASSEE—Sportsmen who haven't gotten their quota permit to hunt on a wildlife management area during the first nine days of the general hunting season have one last chance.

Fred Stanberry, director of the division of wildlife of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, said about 20,000 permits are still available and will be issued on a first-come, first-served basis.

"Beginning Wednesday, October 5, we will have four special telephones here in Tallahassee to handle the requests for the remaining permits," he said.

"Those who can't call can come by or write requesting a permit." The phones will be manned from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. weekdays and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturdays through November 4, Stanberry said. Sportsmen who call will need their 1977-78 wildlife management area stamp number. "When a hunter calls, he will be told whether or not there are any openings in the area he wants and can select alternative locations," the division director said.

Those who write for a permit may use the application forms now at tax collectors and license agents. Any request must include the hunter's name, address, Zip Code, stamp number as well as choice areas.

Letters should be addressed to: Division of Wildlife, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, 620 S. Meridian St., Tallahassee, Fla. 32304.

Telephone numbers to call for permits are: (904) 488-9311, (904) 488-9312, (904) 488-9313 and (904) 488-9314. Collect calls will not be accepted, Stanberry said.

PASTOR BILL FULKS and his family will be meeting members of the Chosen Missionary Baptist during a "Know Your Pastor Day" Sunday. Other members of the family include his wife, Linda, and from left, his daughters, Elaine, Felisha, Rose (on her mother's lap) and Angela, and their son, Charlie Ray.

New minister comes to Chosen

CHOSEN—Many members of the Chosen Missionary Baptist Church will get a chance to meet their new pastor...who in turn will have a chance to meet his first congregation.

The Rev. Bill Fulks said this week he arrived in Belle Glade last Monday, that Chosen Missionary Baptist is his first church, "and I hope I'll be my last."

"I feel I have been blessed by God more than any preacher living today," Rev. Fulks said. "God has not only allowed me to come to what I feel is the most beautiful and exciting part of the United States but he has called me to pastor the most beautiful Missionary Baptist Church full of the most sincere and dedicated followers of Christ I have ever met."

He said the church will hold a "Get to Know the Pastor Day" Sunday at 12:30 p.m., following morning worship services. Rev. Fulks invited members of the community to come and take part. Sunday School begins at 9:45 a.m. and the morning services begin at 11. Rev. Fulks said the day's activities will include dinner on the grounds, music, testimony, prayer and getting to know him and his family.

Fulks said he particularly feels at home in the Glades. His wife, the former Linda Meredith, came from Clewiston; he was in Florida for "ten or 11" of his 13 years in the U.S. Navy and he originally came from a small farming community in Indiana.

"I've done a lot of farming in Indiana," he said, explaining that while his father was a truck driver, he and the rest of his family worked farms while his father was on the road.

He said he left Indiana to join the Navy, serving in a variety of places, including several bases, from Key West to Jacksonville and back to Key West, in Florida.

Rev. Fulks said he attended Florida Baptist College in Lakeland before moving to Miami, where he was a worker at Village Green Missionary Baptist Church before coming to Belle Glade.

Pahokee United Methodists Women elect new officers

PAHOKEE—The Pahokee Chapter of the United Methodist Women met Monday, October 3, with President, Majorie Hutton presiding. Helen Davis opened the meeting with a word of prayer, which was followed by an interesting lesson on the country of Haiti, presented by Carol Arline. The treasurer's report was emitted by Marie Hendrix. Reports from the different circles were also given.

The Christian Personhood Chairman, Helen Davis, reported that the Vinn Mae Schroeder Circle would be responsible for the delivering of the Bernice Simonson tape for the month of October. Afterwards, the Nominating Committee presented a slate of officers for the upcoming year. A motion was made that the officers be elected. It was seconded and carried. The new officers are as follows: president, Margarita Maxwell; vice president, Frances Vorhees; secretary, Norma Cook; treasurer, Marie Hendrix; Christian Personhood, Irene Bowe; Global Concerns, Bernice Simonson; Bereavement, Alice Spooner; membership, Kathryn Spencer and Jo Hutton, card committee, Louise Brown; Adult and Student Ministry, Nellie Moss.

The Nominating Committee for the upcoming year was also elected. The members are as follows: chairman, Norma Cook, Robina Blakely, Inez Reeves, Irene Bowe, and Donna Bair. Motions were made, seconded and carried that only a life member or an active member be put on the United Methodist Women Memorial Plaque, and that the World Mission offerings be sent to Haiti. It was also decided that the United Methodist Women would serve refreshments for the quarterly conference to be held at the Pahokee United Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon, October 16th.

Mrs. Hutton said a District Annual Meeting will be held at the Riviera Beach Methodist Church, October 30th. The annual meeting at Lakeland, Fla. will begin November 12th. Delicious refreshments were served by the Miriam Dunlop Circle.

Obituary

EMILE BURTON PERRIER

Emile Burton Perrier, age 58 of State Road 78, Indiantown, died Friday, October 7th at Good Samaritan Hospital. A native of Randolph, Vermont, he was a resident of Indiantown for 14 years, coming there from New Port, Vermont. He was a dragline operator for Cawkings Land Development Limited and a member of the Gospel Tabernacle in West Palm Beach.

Survivors include his wife, Rachael; daughters, Mrs. Edythe Pope of Palmetto, Fla., Julie and, Janice Perrier of Indiantown; sons, Charlie Mayall of Semi, California and Wayne Mayall of Akron, Ohio; brother, Roland Perrier of Burlington, Vermont; sister, Mrs. Irene Broome of Charleston, Vermont, 14 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Services were held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Wetherington Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. C.S. Uptegrove officiating. Interment was to Port Mayaca Cemetery. Pallbearers were: Mike Hammond, James Thomas, George Gooley, Elmer Northup, Ronnie Hataway and Jack Shields. Wetherington Funeral Home, Pahokee, was in charge of arrangements.

thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.

Luke 10:27

The basis of God's first and greatest commandment is love. God gave man the freedom to choose ... and therefore will not force his love on anyone. God took the first step and is always ready to receive any who would come to Him.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

The third quarter homecoming halftime activities saw the Gators come out ready to horseplay the Cowboys, but the two sustained drives the Gators were able to mount were ended by penalties.

In the fourth quarter, the Cowboys were able to move the ball for the first time during the game, getting down to the 19 before quarterback Tim White connected with Robbie Hull for the lone touchdown. The point after was good and LaBelle went ahead 7-0.

With only a minute remaining, Gator offensive standout Winston Byrd raced 89 yards for an apparent Glades Day score, but officials ruled he had stepped out of bounds on the 38 and that touchdown was called back.

As always, the Gator defense proved to be the strong link in Glades Day's chain. The Cowboys recovered a fumble on the Gator one, but were held from crossing the goal in four attempts.

On the fourth down, however, officials ruled pass interference and the Cowboys got four more tries. They failed to ram the ball through.

"We got our penalties at critical times," said Walker. "It seemed that when we had something going, we'd get penalized."

Several times, drives were killed by penalties. Throughout the game, the Gators were able to move the ball, but the penalties were always there to halt the celebration.

The standout on defense was Kenny Buckner, who managed ten tackles alone and assisted in seven others.

"The whole defense played tough," said Walker. "They've only given up one touchdown through the air this year and LaBelle was the only team to gain over 100 yards on them by passing."

But the chances are the secondary will be severely tested Friday night.

Two Gators are on the injury list. Larry Fowler is "questionable" due to a knee injury and John Scruggs has ankle problems.

One player who may be making his first appearance since the first game of the year is Quique Echave, whose speed could be vital against Christian.

Echave was to report to the doctor Monday to learn if he could play, but even if he can, "he's record is 4-1 and two of the teams that have fallen to Christian are Moore Haven and Kings Academy."

They will be going up against Galdes Day in what may be the conference championship. Christian is now 2-0 in conference play while Glades Day is 1-0.

"It's the key game of the year for us," said Walker.

Glades Day fans can expect to see an aerial battle Friday night. Christian defeated both Moore Haven and Kings "through the air" and Friday night beat Air Academy, partly by throwing the ball 36 times during the game.

"I've got confidence in our secondary," said Walker. "They've only given up one touchdown through the air this year and LaBelle was the only team to gain over 100 yards on them by passing."

But the chances are the secondary will be severely tested Friday night.

One player who may be making his first appearance since the first game of the year is Quique Echave, whose speed could be vital against Christian.

Echave was to report to the doctor Monday to learn if he could play, but even if he can, "he's missed a lot of work and his timing could be off," said Walker.

"We're just going to have to be tough against Christian," said Walker.

"I was proud of the way the team played against LaBelle. They kept fighting back under adverse conditions. They couldn't have played much better," said Walker.

Traffic Council to meet

BELLE GLADE - The Lake Okeechobee Area Traffic Council will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday, Nov. 1 beginning at 7 p.m. in the Belle Glade Holiday Inn.
